Father's Day Novena Masses

Each year as we approach the day that celebrates our Fathers, we offer a Novena of Masses in honor of our Fathers, Grandfathers or those men who cared for us. If you'd like to have masses offered for your Father, Grandfather or Uncle for Father's Day, you will find Novena envelopes in your offertory packets or at the back of the church. These Novena envelopes will be placed on the Altar throughout the Novena.

Enrich Your Marriage

This 6 part study, designed for married couples of any age, is like a mini marriage retreat!

Marriage is a priceless gift. And one that is worth going out of our way to protect. We must always be careful to not let other things in life—a career, a hobby, social media, friendships with the opposite sex—take up our attention in a way that starts to divide our union with our spouse. Strong marriages don't happen by chance. We generally get out of our relationship what we put into it. Becoming aware of our personal weaknesses, making a priority to overcome them, and seeking God's help to do so can make all the difference between a marriage that just survives and one that truly thrives.

Catechism Question

191. How do they participate in the kingly office?

The laity participate in the kingly function of Christ because they have received from Him the power to overcome sin in themselves and in the world by self-denial and the holiness of their lives. They exercise various ministries at the service of the community and they imbue temporal activities and the institutions of society with moral values.

† THE FAMILY FULLY ALIVE BULLETIN †

Bringing a new Catholic Family Discipleship Challenge and a new Catholic theme each month.

Catholic Family Discipleship Challenge # 8

Invest in Your Family ~

Each of us has 168 hours in our week. We invest time in many things...work, sports, computers, television, smart phones, shopping... How much time do we invest in our families? St. Paul reminds us that we will reap what we sow. Every hour invested in outside activities, no matter how important they seem, is an hour deducted from our investment in family. Our relationships need nurturing especially those with our spouse and children. Take a look at how you invest your time. Make sure your family investment is a priority. The return will be worth it!

Remember the Monthly Challenge:

- #1: Make time for supper.
- #2: Serve others.
- #3: Practice what you preach.
- #4: Make your home a Catholic home.
- #5: Share your story of faith.
- #6: Observe the Sabbath.
- #7: Protect your castle.

Do you know that ...

The Church is a Home for the Wounded Heart?

Upon greeting the Holy Family in the Temple, Simeon declared that the child Jesus would be “a sign that will be contradicted.” (Luke 2:34, NAB) Indeed, the Gospels tell us that Jesus’ “hard sayings” offended many of His followers. Some of Jesus’s hardest sayings deal with marriage, sexual desire, and the family.

It is no surprise that these “hard sayings” are thought to be out of step with our current culture. But the Church calls each of us to the fullness of truth and encourages us to seek the mercy of God as we grow in our capacity to live it out. Pope Francis calls the Church a “field hospital after battle” where we encounter Christ, the Divine Physician. Since any encounter with our Divine Physician brings healing, we are called to bring the wounded to an encounter with Him.

That is because Love is Our Mission.

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children and ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

Expressing Profound Gratitude

Whoever expresses profound gratitude to God, even for the least benefits received, praises God wondrously, for He, who has granted these benefits, is supremely great.

Hence, you ought not to look upon what the Most High has freely and lovingly granted you as something trifling or of little worth. God neither seeks nor asks anything more of us than that we willingly love him, avoid all that offends him, and always and everywhere to give him thanks. God highly values the man who out of true humility belittles and forgets himself, judges himself unworthy of all gifts and benefits, does not flaunt them when received, and does not seek the praise of others.

Greater, however, is the man who like Job, though afflicted under the weight of many troubles, despised, impoverished, tempted, reviled, forgotten, crushed, and ridiculed, blesses God, gives him thanks, and remains joyful in heart. Blessed is he who humbly accepts afflictions from the hand of God and offers and abandons himself totally to the divine will. Blessed is he who chooses whatever is more pleasing to God; he who accepts the worst as the best rejoices when he meets with insult and endures temporal afflictions, knowing they are for his soul's benefit. ~ Venerable Thomas Kempis
