A Letter from our Bishop

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

When natural disasters occur around the world, like the recent earthquake in Nepal, the Catholic Church is quick to respond with food, shelter and other humanitarian supplies. Through the efforts of Catholic Relief Services (CRS), the official international humanitarian agency of the Catholic Church, we are able to quickly assist those most in need.

The CRS Collection, taken annually in July, funds six Catholic agencies that serve men, women and children of every ethnic and religious affiliation around the world. CRS helps us to see Christ in every person and to serve them out of love for Christ. Whether combating human trafficking, educating poor children, assisting with refugees fleeing civil conflict or constructing wells for drinking water, CRS seeks only to love and serve Christ.

Each time CRS is able to assist someone in need, you are there because of your prayerful and financial support. Thank you for the many ways you have served Christ around the world through your generous support of Catholic Relief Services.

Next weekend, on July 11 and 12, our parishes will conduct a special collection for Catholic Relief Services (CRS). Your contribution will assist CRS in its continued work in Nepal as well as throughout the world.

With gratitude for your continued generosity and every prayerful wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald M. Barbarito
Bishop of Palm Beach

Pro Life Corner

“Human rights are not a privilege conferred by government. They are every human being’s entitlement by virtue of his humanity. The right to life does not depend, and must not be contingent, on the pleasure of anyone else, not even a parent or sovereign. You must see; that your own government, at present, seems blind to this truth.”

~Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Catechism Question

194. What is the meaning of the “communion of saints”?

This expression indicates first of all the common sharing of all the members of the Church in holy things (sancta): the faith, the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, the charisms, and the other spiritual gifts. At the root of this communion is love which “does not seek its own interests” (1 Corinthians 13:5) but leads the faithful to “hold everything in common” (Acts 4:32), even to put one’s own material goods at the service of the most poor.

Prayer for Protection from Storms

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children and ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes which may threaten us. Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, pray for us.

St. Maria Goretti

Feast Day ~ July 6th

Patron of Youth, Young Women, Purity, and Victims of Rape

Born in Corinaldo, Ancona, Italy, on October 16 1890; her farmworker father moved his family to Ferrier di Conca, near Anzio. Her father died of malaria and her mother had to struggle to feed her children. In 1902 an eighteen-year-old neighbor, Alexander, grabbed her from her steps and tried to rape her. When Maria said that she would rather die than submit, Alexander began stabbing her with a knife. As she lay in the hospital, she forgave Alexander before she died.

Her death didn't end her forgiveness, however. Alexander was captured and sentenced to thirty years. He was unrepentant until he had a dream that he was in a garden. Maria was there and gave him flowers. When he woke, he was a changed man, repenting of his crime and living a reformed life. When he was released after 27 years he went directly to Maria's mother to beg her forgiveness, which she gave. "If my daughter can forgive him, who am I to withhold forgiveness," she said. When Maria was declared a saint in 1950, Alexander was there in the St. Peter's crowd to celebrate her canonization. He said, "I hope for salvation, since I have a saint in heaven praying for me." She was canonized by Pope Pius XII in 1950 for her purity as model for youth..
